: : : : : (1) AP1 Campaign Update : : : : : :

Last week the AP1 Campaign got underway. We had 14 in attendance with 12 gamers playing in the campaign. Thanks to everyone who turned out to play and to watch. It's not too late to get in on the action, so get your army together and get in the game!

This week's scenario will be "The Enigma". Your army is searching for a critical information device and it is a battle to the finish to capture and hold the objective.

You can download the scenario off of the web site. (And the rules are posted there also if you need those too!)

Last week there were 4 players that took control of territories outside their home sector. Four other players managed to fight to a draw and activate one of their home sector territories. For the updated map, week 1 summary and the current player standings, visit the web site.

Make sure to get your membership dues paid this month... non-members are required to pay $5 to continue in the campaign.

AP1...because chicks dig AP1!

: : : : : (2) July 22nd Game Night Coverage : : : : : :

Our sixth club meeting and game night of 2004 at the world of Battle was held this past week on July 22nd and we had 14 in attendance with 12 gamers turning out to play.

Members and guests set up and voted for the Mini of the Month Contest (more on that later) and after a a brief meeting to discuss the AP1 Campaign rules, we rolled D6 for campaign pairings and got the games underway. We played the "Set the Forward Lines" scenario.

Altogether we had 12 gamers playing on 6 tables. We also had two visitors stay and watch the action unfold.

If you missed the action this week, be sure to visit the World of Battle Thursday, July 29th at 6:00pm to answer the call to WAAAAAGH!!!

July 22nd marked teh last week of our July "Mini of the Month" contest. We had five participants and all of the members, guests and GW staff in the World of Battle cast their votes for their favorite.

During the July 29th meeting, we will award the Grand Prize and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons.

Next month we're featuring ELITES. So if you missed the July Troops contest, get your Elites out and get 'em ready.

For more information about the contest, see the web site at <http://www.AdeptusMemphis.org>

August Mini of the Month...ELITES! Get 'em out of the case and into the contest. We've got some great painters out there so get you act in gear and join in the contest.

We'll only be running the August MotM contest for two weeks, so you've got time to get your last details on those Elite minis before the first week. Our August MotM contest will happen on August 19th and 26th.

: : : : : (6) Game Night RSVPs : : : : : : : : : :

Don't forget to RSVP for Game Nights! You can easily RSVP by responding to any emails, you can RSVP on the Online Forums or you can RSVP using the form on the web site.

If you're not RSVPing each week, you're missing out on any experience points that will go toward the club "ranks" system. I'm keeping track of the RSVPs and those that are consistently RSVPing each week are racking up points that will be retro-applied to the "rank" system once it is implemented.

It's easy and quick, so DO IT! The MAWL online forums are available for you to RSVP about attending our weekly Game Night. You can post a reply to the forum to let everyone know that you'll be attending and supporting the club.

If you don't use the forums, please RSVP by either responding to an email or by submitting the RSVP using the form on the web site.

I'm working with Sean Freyholtz at GW to set up a tour of the Games Workshop facility for the Adeptus Memphis club.

OK all of you graphic artists out there...The Adeptus Memphis Logo Contest is OFFICIALLY ON!

If you'd like to leave your mark on the MAWL...submit a logo design for our logo contest and be immortalized on the web site, T-shirts, documents...everywhere!

The logo contest will run through the month of August and we'll vote on the winner in early September.

battle_lust_ezine_20040724.txt

To submit an entry, simply email any electronic versions to me, or submit a hardcopy of any hand-drawn material to me and YOU'RE IN!

We'll be using the logo on all our club materials and you will be credited with the design on the web site. Plus you'll get experience points towards RANK! Only official club members will be allowed to participate in the voting for the logo, so if you haven't paid your 2004 dues, what are you waiting for...make it official and get your dues paid so you'll have a voice in the club!

James at GW advised that we can work with him on any of the GW copyrighted artwork to get approval to use their images in the design so if you incorporate any GW images, we'll have to get their approval before the logo design can be finalized.
